

Suite No.4

Lady Strathcona's Boudoir.

Suite Overview

Suite No.4 is a two bedroom suite that is situated on the first floor and enjoys panoramic vistas. This suite comprises a master bedroom that contains a free standing slipper bath overlooking the Pap of Glencoe, a second spacious bedroom with views towards the Atlantic Ocean, a large sitting room with an original marble open fireplace, a separate dining room (capacity 10-12 guests) and a generously sized shower room with a separate WC.

The Sitting and separate Dining Room

One of the key defining features of Glencoe House's elegant accommodation is your personal private sitting room, which creates the ultimate retreat and hideaway. Suite No.4 is formerly Lady Strathcona's boudoir. The room contains a chandelier and an impressive original fireplace, which can be lit to give a warm glow of an afternoon or in the evening.

The adjoining Dining Room hosts a generously stocked "maxi bar" in your antique sideboard and the large dining room table can seat up to 12 guests for breakfast or dinner.

Breakfast is a relaxed affair, which is served at a time of your pleasing at your personal, full sized dining table in the dining room, which can be enjoyed while admiring the spectacular view and contemplating the day's activities together with your choice of daily newspapers.

Suite 4
Area - 114m²

The Master Bedroom

The Master Bedroom boasts a number of original period features including original window shutters; the room is a generous 24 square metres. The "Glencoe House Rejuvenating Bed Concept" allows for a restful and restoring night's sleep and is tailored to your every need. We offer a turndown service that includes closing the window shutters and a hot water bottle if desired. A distinctive feature of this bedroom that delights is the free standing slipper bath. This is an ideal location to retreat from the world for a while. The antique dressing table, wardrobe and crystal chandelier give the finishing touches to an elegant and refined room.

The Second Bedroom

The second bedroom is no less impressive. This large room enjoys stunning views down Loch Leven and is an ideal place to view the stunning sunsets while reclining on the chaise longue. Antique furniture, such as the original Victorian dressing table, adorn this room which is lit to its best by the crystal chandelier.

The Shower Room

The shower room takes all needs into account whilst you are enjoying the "Glencoe House Energising Shower Concept" The room is 10sqm/108 ft2 and also boasts 'his' and 'hers' wash hand basins for that individual touch.

Suite No.4

