

Suite No.7

Lord Strathcona's Business Room.

Suite No. 7 is the largest of the Glencoe House suites and decadently occupies the whole of the second floor. It is a two-bedroom suite and has the best panoramic views of the Atlantic Ocean in the building.

The Sitting Room and separate Dining Room

One of the key defining features of Glencoe House's elegant accommodation is your personal private sitting room, which creates the ultimate retreat and hideaway. Suite No.7's sitting room is 42 square metres. Its unique period features have been preserved which gives a feeling of grandeur. The room contains an impressive original open fireplace, which can be lit to give a warm glow of an afternoon or in the evening while enjoying a drink from the generously stocked "maxi" bar in your antique sideboard.

Breakfast is a relaxed affair, which is served at a time of your pleasing at your personal, full-sized dining table in your dining room, which can be enjoyed while admiring the spectacular view and contemplating the day's activities together with your choice of daily newspapers.

The Master Bedroom

The Master bedroom boasts a number of original period features including a fire place; the room is a generous 24 square metres. The "Glencoe House Rejuvenating Bed Concept" allows for a restful and restoring night's sleep and is tailored to your every need. We offer a turndown service that includes closing the window shutters and a hot water bottle to warm the bed if desired. A defining feature of this room is the adjoining dressing room that contains an antique dressing table and wardrobe, which gives the finishing touches to an elegant and refined room.

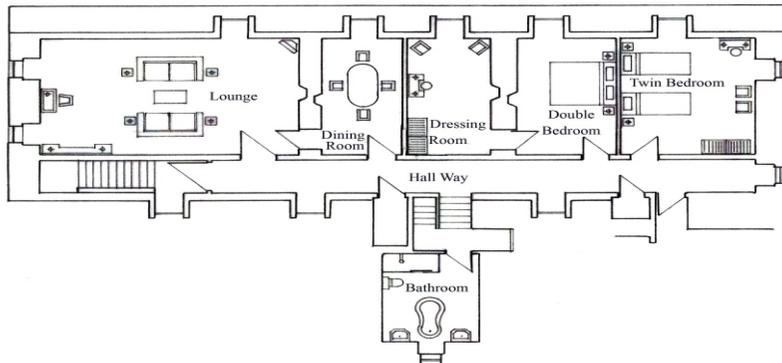

The Second Bedroom

This light and spacious room enjoys double aspect views west and north. The views from this bedroom are unprecedented and a lovely way to start your day. This room has an antique dressing table and wardrobe along with the Glencoe House Rejuvenating Bed Concept make this room the epitome of rest and relaxation.

The Bathroom

The bathroom takes all needs into account whether you favour sipping champagne in the free standing slipper bath overlooking the Pap of Glencoe or enjoying the "Glencoe House Energising Shower Concept". The room is 10 sqm / 108 ft² and also boasts 'his' and 'hers' wash hand basins for that individual touch.
